(1) In order to complete her application, Ms. Lee has to submit the required documents to the Postgraduate Office, as the selection board decided (a personal letter is available at the Postgraduate Office).

Until her application is completed, Ms. Lee can attend the course as auditor.

The first 15 applicants admitted to the Course shall email a message of acceptance or rejection to itacina@unibg.it or fax it to the number +39 035 2052600 no later than 01 July 2008. If no such message is received they will lose the right to enrol.

Each admitted applicant that accepts to enrol for the course shall pay € 500.00 by bank transfer for enrolment and fax a copy of the receipt to +39 035 2052600 or email the transfer details (payer, bank, date of transaction) to itacina@unibg.it by 08 July 2008 at the latest or he/she will lose the right to enrol.

If no message of acceptance or rejection is received, the place will be offered to the next applicant (reserve) in the list.

The secretary will notify the offer of a place to reserve applicants at the email address given in their application for the Course, specifying the deadline by which a message of acceptance or rejection of attendance should be emailed to itacina@unibg.it or faxed to the number +39 035 2052600 together with a receipt of the bank transfer as described above.

This message will count as an official notification; reserve applicants should therefore meet the deadlines to avoid losing their right to enrol.

Applicants who reject the offer of a place are required to inform the University in writing by email or fax.

Compliance with the aforesaid procedure is a condition for obtaining a Student Visa for entry into Italy and for reserving an airline ticket to reach the course venue in time for the beginning of the Course.

Bergamo, 25 June 2008
