- Technology, innovation and management (TIM)

It is understood to be exclusively activated the course when the accreditation procedure will end positively.

Any additional places or scholarships, upon acquisition of the necessary funding by external Bodies and signing of the relative agreement, will be announced by a subsequent decree which must be adopted within the deadline of this announcement.

The PhD programs all make reference to the Doctoral School.

Each position ex DM 117/2023 in the selection will be assigned "sub condizione", as it is subject to a verification of eligibility for support from the PNRR, carried out by the Ministry on the basis of the eligibility requirements identified respectively by Article 7 of the D.M. 117. In the event that a position does not pass the verification with a positive result, all interested parties will be promptly notified.

Section 2 Requirements for admission to the selection

Those who, at the due date of the announcement, hold an academic degree accomplished in accordance with the legislation in effect prior to Ministerial Decree 509/1999, a postgraduate degree (Ministerial Decree 509/1999), a Master's degree (Ministerial Decree 270/2004) or other fit international qualification, may submit an admittance application.

Those who will be achieving the qualification required for admission by 31 October 2023 may also participate. In such case, admission to the selection will be accepted "subject to approval" and the candidate will have to submit, by e-mail to the address carriera.dottorandi@unibg.it, a signed certifying sworn declaration to Student Administration, under penalty of expiration, as provided by s. 46 of Presidential Decree 28.12.2000, No. 445 within 5 days from attainment of the qualification.

The appropriateness of foreign qualifications will be ascertained by a doctorate judging Commission, in full respect of current laws applicable in Italy and in the country of origin of the qualification as well as any applicable international treaties or agreements in matter of qualification acknowledgement for the prosecution of studies. In order to acknowledge the appropriateness of a foreign document, which has not yet been declared equivalent to an Italian academic II level degree, candidates will have to – to the sole purpose of admission to the doctorate they are applying for – upload within the online application procedure the documents referred to in article 4.

Any additional requirements for admission to the selection, under penalty of exclusion, are indicated in Annex A to this announcement and they must be possessed by the expiry date of the call. The verification of the existence of these requirements is in the responsibility of the Commission.

Candidates in possession of the PhD degree obtained in Italy or those who have benefited from a PhD scholarship (even partial) in Italy cannot benefit from a scholarship.

According to the provisions of the MUR, in order to avoid the occurrence of state aid hypotheses, company employees cannot receive the PhD scholarship.

Any exclusion from admission examination caused by deficiency of requisites will be set out by means of a motivating Rectoral Act.

Section 3 Application requests and selection enrolment modalities

The applications for admission to the public selection, completed in accordance with the modalities explained in the following paragraph, must be submitted within the peremptory deadline of 11.59 a.m. hours (Italian time) of 25 August 2023.

Selection enrolments will be filed exclusively online, following the instructions indicated in the online page <https://www.unibg.it/node/15339> of the Università degli studi di Bergamo website.

At the end of the procedure, confirmation that the application has been entered will be sent to the e-mail address indicated by the candidate; it is the candidate's responsibility to verify the correct receipt of the confirmation email.

The application is finalized with the payment of the application fee referred to in Article 4 below by 11:59 a.m. (Italian time) on 25/08/2023.

The online application form can be modified and/or supplemented with additional documentation within the peremptory deadline. No complaints will be accepted for any system malfunctions; therefore, all candidates are invited to complete their application request adequately in advance and in any case no later than the expiry date.

Any applications submitted in any way other than the above-mentioned procedure will not be considered.

When completing the online application, the candidates must choose the PhD course (s) and the scholarship (s) with a specific topic for which they intend to compete.

Each candidate can compete for a maximum number of three topics.

If there is an interest in competing for more research topics (maximum 3), it is mandatory to indicate the order of preference which will not be binding for the award of the scholarship as explained in the following art. 4.

Candidates wishing to compete for more than one PhD program must complete an application for each course.

Candidates with invalidities or learning disabilities

Candidates with disabilities and / or diagnosed with specific learning disabilities (SLD) who intend request the assistance required by current legislation, must fill in the "Invalidity Declaration" section within the online pre-registration application.

Disability certifications must be:

- issued by INPS, pursuant to Law 118/1971 (civil invalidity)
and / or

- issued by the competent public health structure of the territory according to Law 104/92 and subsequent additions (handicap certificate).

SLD certifications must:

- be issued by structures of the SSN or by accredited authority not earlier than 3 years from the date of taking the admission interview, except in the case of certifications drawn up after the age of majority (Article 3 of Law 170/2010 and subsequent State Agreement - Regions of 24/07/2012);
- meet the criteria of the 2011 Consensus Conference;
- be complete with diagnosis and nosographic reference codes, according to Law 170/2010.

Candidates with disabilities and / or with SLD resident in foreign countries, who intend to take advantage of the measures referred to in the previous paragraph, must submit a certificate certifying the status of disability or SLD issued in the country of residence, accompanied by a certified translation into the language Italian or English. The Commissions in charge of examining the certifications referred to in the preceding paragraphs ascertain that the foreign documentation certifies a specific disability or learning disorder recognized by Italian law.

Section 4

Selection procedures and required documentation

The selection will occur by evaluation of qualifications and interview.

The Judging Commission carries out the selection in two steps:

- I step: evaluation of qualifications and the presented documentation within the attribution of up to 60 marks;

- II step: the candidates who, in step I, reached a mark not lower than 42/60 are admitted to the interview; the interview is considered as passed if the candidate obtains at least 21/30 marks.

The candidate is required to submit the following documents during online registration, in pdf format:

1. identity document;
2. the candidate's own curriculum studiorum specifying studies and experiences relating to the doctoral course as per the facsimile available on the website <https://www.unibg.it/node/15339>;
3. a research project written by the candidate (a facsimile of the research project is available on the website <https://www.unibg.it/node/15339>, see Annex A for any specifications); such research program is uniquely oriented to the selection and will not necessarily be the same research project as the one that will be entrusted;

If required in Attachment A

1. presentation letters of Italian or foreign academics;
2. language certifications;
3. any other required documentation.

For candidates in possession of a foreign qualification that has not already been declared equivalent:

1. First and second cycle degree diplomas - Bachelor's and Master's degree level that allow admission to PhD level/3rd cycle studies in the home country, awarded by a recognized academic Institution, with final mark;
2. Transcripts of records of both first and second cycle Degree with complete grading;
3. Any other document useful for the recognition of eligibility (such as Diploma Supplement, or Dichiarazione di valore in loco issued by the University or the Italian embassy/consulate in the country where the degree was issued, or certification of eligibility issued by ENIC_NARIC Centers). It is reported that the ENIC_NARIC Center CIMEA is suspending its attestation service as of 07/29/23.

The above-mentioned documents must be drawn up in Italian or English, under penalty of exclusion from the selection. In cases where self-certification is not allowed (e.g. non-EU candidate with a qualification awarded abroad), if the official documentation issued by the university where the qualification was obtained is not already in English, the candidate must attach also a certified translation in Italian or English.

Participation in the call requires a non-refundable registration fee of €20.00 to be paid through PagoPA as part of the online registration process.

In compliance with the principle of loyal cooperation, the candidate is required to provide all the elements necessary to allow the Commission to carry out the evaluation of qualifications in a complete and objective way. It is understood that if the elements provided by the candidate are deficient, inaccurate or incomplete, the Commission will not be able to score.

The results of qualification evaluations will be made available on the University's website at the <https://www.unibg.it/node/15339> within one day from the date fixed for the interview.

For all the topics announced, the Selection Committee will draw up separate rankings considering the scores obtained by the candidates in the evaluation of the qualifications and the project and in the oral exam and will indicate the names of the candidates found suitable whose profile presents an index of prevalence / preference in terms of affinity with respect to the research topic.

The identification of PhD students who are recipients of PNRR scholarships is done in relation to the ability of the doctoral research project to contribute to the achievement of the aims and objectives proper to the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (PNRR).

The preference expressed on the topic of the scholarship will not be binding on the commission.

The same candidate may be suitable for several topics.

If the candidate is the winner for a topic and accepts the position, he/she will not be taken into consideration in any scrolling in the ranking relating to a different topic as already registered in the other ranking.

In the event that no applications are received for one of the specific rankings of a course, in case of renunciation or in the absence of suitable candidates in the same ranking, and however in all cases, the Commission can reserve the possibility of assigning the place, upon verification of the requirements, to the first of the eligible candidates from one of the other rankings of the course.

Scholarship recipients are required to carry out the indicated research activity.

The inclusion of test dates in the announcement's Attachment A constitutes notification for all intents and purposes. Any changes related to the date or modality of the interview will be communicated to the admitted applicants with at least a 10-day notice.

Failure to show up at the interview will be considered as a renunciation to participate in the competition for all practical purposes.

Any information regarding the selection will be communicated through the publication of a notice on the University's website under the section Concorsi e selezioni - Dottorati di ricerca.

It is the responsibility of each candidate to monitor the site periodically by consulting the page of notices relating to this selection

It is possible to carry out the interview by videoconference and / or in a foreign language, as specified in Annex A. During the interview, knowledge of the foreign language indicated in Annex A will be verified and, for foreign students, also the knowledge of the Italian language.

In order to be admitted to the tests, the candidate must show a valid identification document.

Once the selection examination is complete, the Commission will compile a general merit ranking based on the marks reached by each candidate during each test and their qualifications.

Selection results are public and access to them is permitted in accordance with the law. The Chancellor may delay access to the results upon conclusion of the selection.

Section 5 Judging Commission

The Chancellor, following the proposal of the Faculty nominates the Commission entrusted to the comparative evaluation of candidates by means of a decree, as provided by the current University Regulations in matter of research doctorates.

Section 6 Admission to projects

The candidates will be admitted to the projects according to their ranking and up to the number of the vacant positions established by the announcement.

In case of equal rankings, the candidate having the neediest family economical situation will prevail in the appointment of scholarship vacant positions, based on the Equivalent Economical Situation

Indicator (ISEE) for assisted services in doctorates. To the purpose of solving equal ranking situations, candidates will be requested to supply a valid ISEE certification.

Candidates with the same position are invited to request the ISEE at the time of publication of the list in order to be able to present it at the time of the call.

In case of renunciations submitted within the beginning of the Phd course, other candidates, based on their highest ranking, will replace the same number of vacant positions. In case the candidate is admitted to more than one project, he will have to opt for a single one.

Section 7

Registration and ranking shift, contributions due by doctoral candidates, exemption protocol.

The selection results will be published in the section of the University's institutional website by September 29, 2023 (<https://www.unibg.it/node/15339>).

The publication of the results has the value of official communication to the interested parties and therefore constitutes the only means of legal publicity of the outcome of the selection.

The fulfilments envisaged for enrolment will be indicated with a specific notice published in the dedicated section of the institutional website of the University: <https://www.unibg.it/node/15339>

For admitted candidates, the peremptory deadline within which the entire registration procedure shall have to be completed, including the payment of regional tax for University student support, virtual stamp duty and the first installment of the contribution, under penalty of expiration, is 13th October 2023.

Anyone not respecting the indicated deadline will be considered a defeatist and will lose their position in the ranking. The resulting vacant positions will be made available to the next suitable candidates in final ranking order. Student Administration will take care in communicating the occurred supplant by means of electronic mail.

Public employees must provide for the required authorization by their administration at the time of publication of the outcome of the selection. For these students the registration will be received under reservation and will remain suspended until such time as the measure of authorization.

Foreign citizens who are not already legally resident in Italy will have to apply for a residence permit for study purposes within 8 working days from their arrival in the State. For these students, the registration is under reservation and will remain suspended until the submission of documents attesting the request for a residence permit.

All doctoral candidates are required to pay, upon registration:

- € 140,00 (regional tax for student support, subject to subsequent decisions of the Lombardy Local Government);
- € 16,00 (virtual stamp duty);
- € 400,00 (first instalment of a fixed contribution).

The second installment of the fixed contribution of €600.00 is due by February 15, 2024.

To the purpose of renewal in each of the following years, if admitted, the candidate is committed to pay only the regional tax and virtual stamp duty in force at the time.

Students with a recognized disability of 66 percent or more and/or with recognized handicap status under Article 3, Paragraph 1 or 3, of Law No. 104 of February 5, 1992, are totally exempt from paying the doctoral course fee and the regional fee for the right to university study.

The schedules contained in Annex A of this announcement indicate for each PhD Program the total number of available places, the available scholarship tied to the performance of specific research projects, which will be assigned by rectoral decree of approval of acts after comparative evaluation of merit and according to the order defined in the relevant ranking list formulated by the Selection Committee.

The recipients of restricted grants are required to carry out the indicated research activity.

The places referred to in this announcement benefit from scholarship funded through the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (NRP) referred to in D.M. 117/2023 provide for:

- compulsory periods of study and research in a company from a minimum of six (6) months to a maximum of eighteen (18) months, on the basis of the individual training plan that will be defined by the Faculty Board;
- compulsory study and research periods abroad, from a minimum of six (6) months to a maximum of twelve (12) months or eighteen (18) months for cotutela thesis, on the basis of the individual training plan that will be defined by the Faculty Board.

The scholarship, the amount of which is equal to 20.500,00 euros for each year of the course, gross of social security charges payable by the recipient in accordance with current regulations, is disbursed in monthly installments. The first installment for November 2023 will be paid together with the installment for December 2023.

Payment of scholarships under DM 117/2023 is subject to receipt of the grant decree from the Ministry.

The amount of a doctorate scholarship is increased by 50% per any period of actual stay abroad for no less than 6 month and no more than 12/18 months, subject to authorization of the Faculty to operate abroad.

Each doctoral candidate is assured, in addition to the scholarship, an amount for research activity either in Italy and abroad, in relation to the type of PhD and, anyway, no less than 10% of the scholarship's value.

Such funds are used according to the modalities provided for research funds assigned to the University's Teaching Body, subject to authorization of the Doctorate Coordinator.

The scholarship has an annual validity and is renewed on the condition that the candidate has completed the activity program expected for the previous year, verified in accordance with the procedures established by the University's Regulations.

The PhD scholarship cannot be combined with any other scholarship granted for any purpose, except with scholarships or other grants awarded by national or foreign institutions for stays abroad aimed at integrating the training and research activity. The accumulation of the PhD scholarship is also not permitted with the use of a Higher Education and Research apprenticeship (article 45 of Legislative Decree 81/2015) and the use of a specialist training contract pursuant to of Legislative Decree 17 August 1999 n. 368.

Section 10

Graduate Candidate obligations and incompatibilities

A) Rights and Obligations of Graduate Candidates

Admission to doctorate entails an exclusive, full-time commitment, unless otherwise provided by current regulations.

The graduate candidate is asked to participate in all the activities expected for his educational curriculum, as indicated by the college, and to perform all research activities that are assigned to him.

In consideration of the funding of the scholarship also by external Company or Institution and of the commitments that the University assumes with them, the PhD student, except for specific legal provisions that preclude the legal protection of intellectual property, must commit himself to secrecy and to the preventive assignment in favour of the University of all intellectual property rights relating to the results produced and / or achieved by the same during all the research activities of the University to which the PhD student is invited to participate in any capacity and without prejudice to the right to be recognized as the author of the results achieved and / or produced by the same. The University recognizes to the PhD student the application of the same economic conditions that the University Patent Regulations grant to their own professors / researchers.

Graduate students, considered an integral part of the formation project, may carry out tutoring activities with degree and master degree students, subject to the approval of the Faculty and without it causing any increase in the scholarship, as well as integrative didactic activities, the latter limited to maximum forty hours per academic year.

Regarding the attendance of PhD Courses and the award of the PhD degree, the University Regulations in matter of PhD apply.

B) Additional obligations for PhD students DM 117/2023

In addition to what is required by the University Regulations for PhDs for all PhD students, the PhD student who is awarded a scholarship referred to in this call ex DM 117/2023 must undertake when enrolling in:

- produce a half-yearly report indicating the time commitment (divided into months in the company, at headquarters and abroad, if required) and a summary of the main activities carried out;
- produce an annual report on the activity carried out, drawn up according to specific forms;
- carry out the foreseen research periods in the company and abroad as indicated in the individual training plan, at the same time certifying that they are aware that failure to comply with the minimum undertaking period will result in the revocation of the scholarship.

In the event of failure to obtain the degree or in the event that the doctoral student is not evaluated positively for the purpose of renewing the scholarship, or renounces it, the doctoral student will be obliged to return the sums paid in relation to the annuity evaluated negatively or to the annuity in progress at the time of the waiver.

In the event of non-compliance with the minimum period of study and research in the company, the PhD student will be obliged to return the sums received in full.

C) Incompatibilities

Simultaneous enrolment in several courses of study which lead to the achievement of a qualification is permitted in the cases provided for by current legislation.
