ING-INF/05 – Information processing systems lasting 12 months for a total gross amount charged to the recipient of Euro 21.000,00 with funding from the fund BRUGFLEX14 – research project "FLEX: Flexible Software Systems for Autonomous Robots".

DECREEES

Art. 1

Call for public selection

A public selection is launched based on qualifications and interview for the awarding of 1 grant for conducting research in accordance with art. 22 of law 240/2010 at the Department of Management, Information and Production Engineering under private law contracts for 12 months.

The grant will be carried out under the academic recruitment field 09/H1 – Information processing systems – academic discipline ING-INF/05 – Information processing systems for the research project entitled "Toolchain integration for robotic systems design and analysis " as set out in Annex A to this announcement.

The Scientific Director of research (tutor) under the contract is Prof. Davide Brugali.

The total gross amount charged to the beneficiary (to which Administration burdens will be added) amounts to € 21.000,00 and will be paid to the successful bidder in monthly instalments of equal amount. The latest instalment of the grant will be provided only upon delivery of the final report.

Art. 2

Grant duration, renewal and extension

The grant under art. 1 may be renewed, subject to the availability of financial resources and to the positive assessment of the research carried out by the contract holder.

For renewal purposes, at the end of the grant's duration, the Rector, upon the related Board's proposal, appoints a committee, responsible for the evaluation of research carried out by the holder.

Before the grant's expiry, the Research Structure Board, upon request of the scientific tutor, may propose an extension to a delay in the conclusion of the research project by allocating appropriate funds.

The total duration of relationships established according to art. 22 Law 240/2010, including any renewal, may not exceed six years, except for the period when the grant has been received in connection with a PhD in the maximum legal duration of its course.

Art. 3

Relationship rules and incompatibilities

The grant cannot be combined with other scholarships of any kind, except with those granted by national or foreign institutions which are useful to supplement, with visits abroad, the research activity of grant holders.

The ownership of the grant is not compatible with participation in undergraduate courses, post-graduate courses or PhD, with scholarship or medical specialization, in Italy or abroad, and involves placing on unpaid leave for employees of the public administration.

The grant is individual. Beneficiaries cannot combine it with income from professional activities or employment continuous relationships. Free-professional activities or continuous conducting of work relationships are prohibited for the entire duration of the grant.

The total duration of grant contracts referred to in this announcement and researcher contracts referred to in art. 24 Law 240/2010, also signed with different state, non-state or online universities, as well as with the bodies referred to in article 22 paragraph 1 of law 240/2010, with the same subject, cannot in any case exceed twelve, also non-continuous, years. For the duration of these relationships, the period spent on unpaid leave is not relevant for maternity leave or for reasons of health in accordance with current legislation.

Art. 4

Requirements for admission to the selection

The selection process is open to scholars in possession of professional scientific curriculum suitable for carrying out research activities under this announcement, as well as with the following requirements:

- Master's degree (DL) in Computer Engineering obtained according to the procedures preceding the entry into force of the Italian Ministerial Decree 509/1999 and subsequent amendments and supplements or Master's degree in Computer Engineering (LM-32 – 35/S) and equivalent qualifications or post graduate degrees in one of the categories equivalent to the above qualification for the purposes of admission to public competitions;

In order to compare degrees of the old legislation, specialist degrees and master's degrees look at the following link:

<http://attiministeriali.miur.it/UserFiles/3160.pdf>

The decrees enshrining equivalences between Italian academic qualifications for the purposes of participation in public competitions are available at the following link:

<http://hubmiur.pubblica.istruzione.it/web/universita/equipollenze-titles>

The qualifications obtained abroad must be recognised as valid in the Italian territory. Additionally, this qualification should be equivalent, solely for purposes of selection, by nature, level and subject correspondence (degree category or CUN Area for PhD qualifications) to the relevant Italian qualification required by this announcement. In the event of doubts in identifying ex officio the equivalence of a foreign degree to the Italian one required, the Commission is responsible, solely for purposes of selection.

- Professional scientific curriculum suitable for carrying out scientific research referred to in art. 1;
- knowledge of the English language.

The following are also required:

- Italian citizenship (Italians not belonging to the Italian Republic will be treated as nationals); the selection is also opened, according to the provisions of art. 38 of Legislative Decree No. 165/2001 as amended and supplemented by art. 7 of law No 97/2013, to citizens of an EU Member State or their family members who are not nationals of a Member State that have the right of residence or the right of permanent residence, as well as third-country nationals who are holders of EU residence permit for long-term residents or who have been holding refugee status or subsidiary protection status;
- at least 18 years old;
- enjoyment of civil and political rights;
- no criminal convictions or ongoing criminal proceedings that would prevent, in accordance with the current legislation, the establishment of the working relationship.

As regards qualifications obtained abroad, required by the announcement for the purpose of admission to the selection, the applicant is required:

- in the event of qualifications already recognised as valid in the Italian territory, to indicate in the participation request the details of the provision, attesting to their recognition in Italy under the applicable law;
- in the event of qualifications not yet recognised, to attach the application request, a certified copy of the declaration of qualification equivalence, issued by the competent Italian diplomatic and consular authorities abroad, or the degree supplement. In order to ensure the widest participation in the selection, the applicant who is not in possession of the above documentation can include a copy of the qualification and relevant affidavit (see Annex D) with a translation into Italian or English; should this applicant be the winner, he/she will have to submit, under penalty of invalidation, the above documents in the terms peremptorily assigned by the Office before the signing of the contract.

The selective procedure does not allow:

SELEZIONI E GESTIONE GIURIDICA

- the regular personnel at universities, institutions and public entities of research and experimentation, the Italian National Agency for new technologies, energy and sustainable economic development (ENEA) and the Italian Space Agency (ASI) and institutions whose scientific specialization diploma was recognised equivalent to a PhD pursuant to the fourth paragraph under article 74 of Presidential Decree of 11 July 1980, No. 382;
- those who have a degree of kinship or affinity or marriage, up to and including the fourth degree, with a professor from the relevant institution or with the Rector, the General Director or a member of the Board of Directors of the University;
- those who have been holders, including any renewals, of research grants awarded in accordance with art. 22 of the law 240/2010 for a period which, added to the duration of the contract under this announcement, exceeds a total of six years, except for the period when the grant has been received in connection with a PhD in the maximum legal duration of the relevant course;
- Applicants enrolled in a degree course, post-graduate degree, PhD degree, with scholarship or medical specialization in Italy or abroad can participate in the selection; should they be the winners, the research grant will be conferred subject to withdrawal from studies or PhD grant.

The holder of grants can attend PhD courses in subjects related to research activities connected with the grant, even notwithstanding the number given, for each University, under University regulations, for the establishment and operation of PhD courses and PhD schools subject to the passing of admission tests. The research grant is still incompatible with the enjoyment of a PhD scholarship.

Applicants who do not have Italian citizenship and allowed to participate as indicated above must possess the following requirements:

- a) enjoy civil and political rights also in the Countries of belonging or of origin;
- b) be in possession, except for holding the Italian citizenship, of all the other requirements laid down for citizens of the Republic of Italy;
- c) have appropriate knowledge of Italian.

These requirements are to be held on the date of expiry of the deadline for submitting the application for admission to this selection.

This administration guarantees equality and equal opportunities between men and women for access to employment and treatment at work.

Art. 5

Exclusion from the procedure

The following reasons are causes of exclusion:

- lack of signing the application form;
- lack of eligibility requirements under art. 4;
- failure to meet the deadline and procedures for submitting a participation application referred to in art. 5.

Applicants may be admitted subject to the selection, in case an additional investigation is needed; in such a case they are required to regularize their own application within the time peremptorily assigned.

The Administration may decide, at any time, by reasoned Rector's Decree, the applicant's exclusion from the selection called under this announcement.

Art. 6

Terms and conditions for submission of application form

To participate in the selection process applicants must apply on plain paper according to the diagram attached to this notice (attachment A) within the peremptory deadline of 24th April 2017. If the deadline falls on a public holiday, the deadline is postponed to the next working day.

The application form, duly signed, must be addressed to the Rector and may be submitted exclusively in one of the following ways:

- a) hand delivery at the Direzione e Affari Generali (Management and General Affairs) Office in via dei Caniana, No. 2 (1st floor) on the following dates and times: from Monday to Friday from 09.30 to 12.00 (the universities will be closed the 24th April 2017);

The Administration reserves the right to carry out suitable checks on the accuracy of the contents of the declarations in lieu in accordance with the provisions of the Presidential Decree 445/2000.

The qualifications requested must be owned at the expiry of the announcement.

It is compulsory to indicate a personal email address as address for communications regarding this selection. Any variation of the delivery address must be promptly communicated to the Office of Selections and legal management.

The University Administration will not be liable in the event of unavailability of the recipient and dispersion of communications dependent on inaccurate indication of delivery address by the applicant or on failed or late communication of address change indicated in the application. The University Administration also accepts no liability for late or failed delivery of communications related to the competition for reasons not attributable to the fault of the Administration itself, but to an internet or postal slip-up, made by third parties, due to unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure.

Reference to documents submitted at this and other administrations, or to documents attached to another application for participation in another competition is not allowed.

Art. 8

Selection Board

The selection referred to in art. 1 is made for the academic recruitment field 09/H1 (Information processing systems) – Academic discipline..... "by a Selection Board appointed by Decree of the Rector and composed of three professors or researchers (even temporary) and two deputy members, upon proposal of the Board of the relevant structure.

In respect of equal opportunities between men and women, the Selection Board must represent both genders.

Art. 9

Qualification evaluation and interview

The Board at the first meeting explicitly establishes the criteria and procedures for the evaluation of qualifications and the interview by fixing a minimum score for admission to the interview if necessary. It, immediately prior to the start of each interview, determines the questions to be made to individual applicants. These questions are drawn at random from each applicant.

At the end of each session dedicated to the interview, the list of applicants examined by the Selection Board with an indication of the score obtained by each will be posted at the headquarters of examinations.

The Board prepares the list in descending order, by adding the score of qualifications and of the interview.

The evaluation criteria of the single boards are determined, for purposes of global assessment, in hundredths as follows:

a) 60 points broken down as follows:

- 1) 10 points for a PhD;
- 2) up to 5 points for the final degree (Degree according to the Old Regulation, and post-graduate degrees according to the New Regulation);
- 3) up to 25 points for publications and scientific research approach;
- 4) up to 10 points for specialization degrees; certificates of attendance to postgraduate courses;
- 5) up to 10 points for other qualifications related to the service provided as a result of duly attested contracts, scholarships and positions in foreign or international national research institutions, showing the commencement and duration of the activity carried out;

b) 40 points for the interview.

In the context of its autonomy, the Selection Board will be able to integrate the above declaration without prejudice to the maximum score assignable expected altogether and per single category.

- Program of the interview: Discussion about previous activities in the field of robotic systems;
- Preferential qualifications: Programming experience in embedded system and autonomous robots;

SERVIZI AMMINISTRATIVI GENERALI SELEZIONI E GESTIONE GIURIDICA

The assessment of the foreign language (or foreign languages) knowledge under this announcement will take place during selection in the manner laid down by the Selection Board. With regard to foreign applicants knowledge of Italian will be assessed.

The results regarding assessment of qualifications must be made known to the parties concerned before the interview, by publication in the registry of the relevant institution.

The winning applicant for the vacant place or places is declared the one who is placed in first position in the merit list, prepared based on the overall score reported by each applicant, as a result of the evaluation of qualifications and score obtained in the interview.

Applicants will be placed on the list if they have achieved at least 30 of 40 points available for the interview and in accordance with the descending order of the final total score. In the event of equal score the younger applicant prevails.

The merit list, together with that of the contest winner is approved under the condition precedent of verifying the requirements prescribed by the announcement, by decree of the Rector and is published in the web site section Competitions and selections – postgraduate Competitions – Research grants. The terms for submitting any appeals will run from the date of publication in the web site of the University.

in the event of withdrawal of winning applicants or for revocation for non-acceptance or failure to sign the contract within the period specified by the Office in charge, grants can be awarded to successful applicants in the order of the merit list.

As regards applicants who are resident or domiciled abroad and for those who, for justified reasons, are unable to be present at the examination premises on the date scheduled by the announcement, the interview can be done also by videoconference provided that this is requested upfront, motivated by the applicant and approved by the Selection Board.

The date and place of the interview will be communicated through a notice published on the website of the University of Bergamo <http://www.unibg.it>, under "Tenders and selection contests for post-graduate research grants", care of the Selection and Legal Management Office with advance notice of at least 20 days.

That warning has notification value and effect. Any change in the date of the interview will be notified to successful applicants at least 20 days in advance by a warning published in the University web site section Competitions and selections – postgraduate Competitions – Research grants.

Art. 10

Establishment of the employment relationship

The winning applicant, possessing the above requirements, will sign a private law contract of employment with the Rector lasting 12 months from the first day of the month following the month in which the proceedings' approval occurred.

As regards foreign applicants for whom a permit to stay is necessary, the effective date of the contract will be deferred and subject to the completion of the procedure for its issue by the competent authorities.

In the event of admission subject to checking the applicant identified by the Selection Board as the winner, an investigation aiming at ascertaining the existence of the qualification claimed to participate to the selection must be concluded before the contract's signature.

Without prejudice to the performance of the relevant tasks, grant holders may perform official or integrative University teaching duties, conferred by contract under the University regulations regarding Professors at the University of Bergamo for a maximum of 6 credits with the approval of the relevant research facility Board.

Without prejudice to the performance of the relevant tasks, grant holders may request, in exceptional circumstances, to carry out external mandates, with the approval of the Research Structure Board, provided that the activity:

1. is occasional and of short duration;
2. does not lead to a conflict of interest with the specific task of research carried out by the grant holder;
3. does not cause any injury to the University image or interests.

Grant holders who wish to carry out, or continue to carry out, a working activity involving services provided free of charge at non-profit voluntary associations or cooperatives of social-welfare nature, can perform this activity, subject to the integral performance of their own research tasks.

The grants do not give rise to rights regarding access to the staff of universities, institutions and public research and experimentation entities, the Italian National Agency for new technologies, energy and sustainable economic development (ENEA) and the Italian Space Agency (ASI) as well as scientific institutions whose scientific degree has been recognised equivalent to a PhD in accordance with art. 74, fourth paragraph, of the Presidential Decree of 11 July 1980, No. 382.

In accordance with the research assigned to them and with the approval of the Research Structure Board, grant holders can participate in research and consulting for third parties commissioned from the University under art. 66 of the Presidential Decree 382/80 and distribution of relevant proceeds in accordance with the rules laid down by current regulations.

In accordance with the Ministerial Decree of 12 July 2007 the working relationship is mandatorily suspended in cases of pregnancy and puerperium in the terms indicated by articles 16, 17 and 20 of the Legislative Decree 151/2001. The employment relationship is subsequently extended, as a result of the above obligation to refrain, for a period of up to 180 days.

The research activity and the grant may be suspended for sick leave of over 30 days in one year, provided that the duration of the grant cannot be reduced because of that suspension. A total justified absence of not more than thirty days per year does not constitute suspension and, consequently, should not be recovered.

From 2011, grants will abide by, as regards taxation, the provisions referred to in art. 4 of the law of 13 August 1984, No. 476, as well as, with regard to social security, those referred to in art. 2, paragraphs 26 and following, of the law of 8 August 1995, No. 335, as amended, with regard to obligatory maternity leave, the provisions referred to in the Decree of the Minister of Labour and Social Security of 12 July 2007, published in the Official Journal No. 247 of 23 October 2007, and with regard to sick leave, art. 1, paragraph 788, of the law of 27 December 2006, No. 296, as amended. In the period of obligatory maternity leave, the allowance paid by INPS in accordance with art. 5 of the above decree of 12 July 2007 is integrated by the University up to the full amount of the research grant.

The University provides insurance cover for accidents and for civil liability against third parties in favour of grant holders in the frame of carrying out their research activities.

At the end of the contract the grant holder will submit to the Research Structure Board a report on the entire activity carried out. In the event of non-delivery of the final report, the latest instalment of the grant will not be allocated.

The contract holder is required to observe the provisions of the University regulations in force as regards the research integrity and ethics.
