

Curriculum Vitae
Submitted for admission to Phd in

.....
(XXXIII Session)

Personal details

Forename and surname
Date of birth
Nationality
Address
Telephone (mobile) and email address
Skype address (if applicable)
Marital status

Academic education and training (list diplomas, degrees, postgraduate qualifications, etc.)

Period
Institution
Country where the qualification was awarded
Type of qualification
Grade earned
Title of dissertation and name of supervisor

Work experience (list experiences lasting at least 3 months)

Period
Type of job
Field
Position and duties

Participation in research projects (a separate entry for each project)

Period
Title of project
Subject area
Role(s) performed in the project

Language skills (list any certificate held)

For each language spoken, specify your level of proficiency according to the criteria given below, based on the Common European Framework established by the Council of Europe. Also list any relevant certificate, such as TOEFL, currently held.

Language.....

A1 (Beginner)
A2 (Elementary)
B1 (Pre-Intermediate)
B2 (Post-Intermediate)
C1 (Proficient)
C2 (Advanced)

Computer skills (list any certificate held)

Specify for each skill the level attained:

- fair
- good
- excellent

List of publications, if applicable (format: AUTHOR, Title, publisher, town, year)

A recent photograph of the applicant must be attached to the CV as a .pdf o .jpeg file

Date and place,
Signed

(Use of personal details authorised under D.Lgs 196/2003)

Note: the template is intended to provide a guide in order to write a good curriculum vitae, but should not be construed as binding.