

Research program:
“From Alternative Food Networks to new forms of governance.
Towards a sustainable food systems in the city of Bergamo”

Annex Code 7

Department of Letters, Philosophy, Communication

Tutor: Prof.ssa Francesca Forno

Description

- a) Georeferenced mapping of the production distribution and consumption sustainable initiatives, of food in the city of Bergamo (solidarity purchase groups, farmers' markets, urban and community gardens, shops and restaurants that enhance the local agricultural products, etc .)
- b) Review of national and international literature on best practices in support of sustainable food production
- c) Development of interviews and questionnaires to be administered to various target groups
- d) Field research conducted through in-depth interviews, focus groups and questionnaires distributed to the different targets groups identified as significant during the initial phase;
- e) Analysis of the data collected.