ARTICLE 3

During the professional and vocational traineeship the trainee has to:

- carry out the activities set out in the above mentioned project;

Any variation in the duration of the traineeship, such as an extension, suspension and interruption, will be allowed provided both parties agree, and in compliance with the national labour laws of both parties.

ARTICLE 6

The trainee is allowed to take part in activities outside the host organisation's main quarters as long as the sending institution is informed before the activity takes place.

ARTICLE 7

1. The Sending Institution provides the trainee with the following insurance policies: insurance against accidents at work through the National Insurance Institute for Employment Injuries (INAIL - Istituto Nazionale Assicurazione contro gli Infortuni sul Lavoro) - position: COD INAIL n. 3104 and Private insurance. Also provides the trainee with liability insurance through a Private Insurance. The insurance policies also cover activities performed by the intern outside the workplace of the Host Institution but which are considered part of the internship program.
2. The host organisation may also provide insurance coverage during the traineeship period. In this latter case, it will attach details of the insurance policy/policies to the
