Art. 2

Duration, renewal and extension

The fellowship in question may last between one and three years, and it is renewable. The overall duration of the established relationships, including any renewal, may not exceed four years, excluding the period during which the fellowship was enjoyed together with the research doctorate, within the maximum duration of the relevant course.

For renewal purposes, the provisions of the Regulations in force shall be applied.

Where applicable, prior to the expiration date of the fellowship, the Department's Board, at the request of the scientific tutor, may suggest an extension due to a delay in completing the research project by allocating suitable funds.

Art. 3

Regulating the relationship and incompatibility

The fellowship cannot be accumulated with other scholarships or grants obtained for any reason, other than the ones granted by national or foreign institutions which can be used to supplement the research activity of the fellowship holders with stays abroad.

The legal ownership of the research fellowship is not compatible with attendance in any university courses, research doctorate with grant or medical specialization, in Italy or abroad, and it entails being placed on an unpaid leave of absence for fellowship holders employed by public administrations.

The fellowship is individual. Its beneficiaries cannot accumulate it with income from professional activities or jobs carried out on a continuous basis. For the entire duration of the fellowship, the holder is prohibited from performing free-lance/professional activities or from entering into continuous employment relationships.

The total duration of the fellowship contracts referred to in this announcement and of the fixed-term researcher contracts referred to in art. 24 of Italian Law 240/2010, including those established with different state, private or telematic universities, as well as with the organizations referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, with the same subject, cannot exceed 12 years (including non-continuous periods). For the purpose of calculating the duration of the aforementioned periods, maternity or sick leaves taken in accordance with regulations in force will not be considered.

SERVIZI AMMINISTRATIVI GENERALI

Art. 4

Admission requirements

The following individuals are not eligible to receive the research fellowships: tenured personnel of Universities, of public research and experimentation bodies and institutions, of the Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Economic Development (ENEA) and the Italian Space Agency (ASI), as well as of institutions whose scientific specialization degree has been recognized to be equivalent to the PhD title pursuant to article 74, paragraph four, of Italian Decree of the President of the Republic no. 382 dated 11th July 1980.

In order to be eligible for the selection referred to in art. 1, applicants must possess the following requirements, in addition to those indicated at art. 7:

1. University degree obtained before the University reform of didactic autonomy, or post-graduate degree or an equivalent academic qualification obtained abroad;
2. No family or kinship relationship, up to and including the fourth degree, with a Professor belonging to the relevant department or with the Rector, with the General Director or a member of the University's Board of Directors;
3. No attendance in any university courses, research doctorate with grant or for medical specialization, in Italy or abroad;
4. Professional scientific curriculum suited to the performance of scientific research activities;
5. Physical fitness for employment. The administration is entitled to require winners of the selection trial to undergo a medical check-up, according to the regulations in force;
6. Not having been barred from the active political electorate;
7. Not having been removed from the job at a public administration or not having been dismissed from a state job, pursuant to art. 127, letter d), of Italian D.P.R. no. 3 of 10th January 1957, for having been hired after producing false documentation or documentation vitiated by irremediable invalidity.

The applicants must possess the aforementioned requirements as of the expiration date of the term established in the selection announcement for submitting the application.

Applicants are admitted with reserve to the selection process.

The Administration may arrange, at any time, by means of a justified decree by the Rector, to exclude an applicant from the selection due to lack of the prescribed requirements.

Any application submitted without a signature or sent after the deadline indicated in this announcement shall be excluded from the selection.

Art. 5

Applications and deadline for presentation

The application forms, drawn up on unstamped paper according to the forms enclosed with this announcement (Annex A for Italian citizens – Annex B for foreign citizens), must be addressed to the Rector of the Università di Bergamo before the final deadline, under penalty of exclusion, of thirty days from the date on which the announcement is published in the Official Notice Board of the Università di Bergamo. Should the indicated deadline fall on a non-business day, it shall be postponed to the next business day; The application forms must be submitted according to one of the following methods:

Handicapped applicants shall submit a specific request with regards to their handicap, pursuant to Italian Law no. 104 of 5th February 1992 concerning the necessary help or the need, if any, of additional time for carrying out the test itself.

The Administration ensures equality and equal opportunity between men and women with regards to access to employment and treatment on the job.

Applicants who are European Union citizens or citizens of non EU-countries regularly living in Italy may submit their qualifications in their original language, in a copy declared to be a true copy by means of a self-certification in lieu of affidavit, pursuant to art. 47 of Italian D.P.R. no. 445 dated 28th December 2000, proving that they possess such qualifications by resorting to the simplified form of administrative certifications as allowed by Italian D.P.R. No. 445 dated 28th December 2000.

Applicants who are non-EU nationals and reside in Italy according to the vital records regulations of the resident population approved with Italian D.P.R. no. 223 of 30th May 1989 may use the substitute declarations in question only as far as they are used to attest their personal status, events and qualities that can be certified or confirmed by Italian public or private entities pursuant to art. 3, paragraph 2 of Italian D.P.R. 445/2000, without prejudice to the special provisions contained in laws and regulations concerning immigration and the condition of foreign nationals.

The Administration reserves itself the right to proceed with suitable checks on the truthfulness of the contents of substitute declarations in accordance with Director's Decree Prot. No. 2731/B dated 19th July 2000. Random checks shall be carried out based on a decreasing order of receipt of the applications to participate in the selection, as identified by the protocol number, in the order of 10% per selection, for self-certifications concerning requirements submitted by the winning applicants, and in the order of 20% per selection, for self-certifications concerning requirements submitted by applicants found to be suitable.

Non-EU nationals not residing in Italy according to the vital records regulations of the resident population approved with Italian D.P.R. no. 223/1989 may submit original qualifications as well as authenticated copies or true copies of such qualifications.

Certificates issued by the pertinent authorities of the nation of which the foreigner is a citizen shall comply with the provisions in force in that very same nation, and must also be authenticated by the pertinent Italian Consular authorities.

A translation into the Italian language shall be enclosed for deeds and documents written in a foreign language, said translation to be certified as conforming to the original text in the foreign

During its first meeting, the Committee expressly defines the evaluation criteria and methods for the qualifications and for the interview, if necessary setting a minimum score that must be obtained in order to be admitted to the interview. Immediately prior to the start of each interview, the Committee defines the questions to be asked of the individual applicants. These questions are drawn by each applicant.

At the end of every interview section, the Selection Committee shall prepare a list of the interviewed applicants, indicating the marks obtained by each one. Such list will then be posted where the examination takes place.

The Committee puts together the merit classification in decreasing order, adding up the score related to the qualifications and the interview score. Scores being equal, the younger applicant shall be selected.

The evaluation criteria of the individual Committees are established, for purposes of the overall evaluation, expressed in hundredths, as illustrated below:

a) 60 points, distributed as follows

- 1) 10 points for the research doctorate;
- 2) up to 5 points for the degree mark (Old University System Degree and New University System Specialist/Five-year degree);
- 3) up to 25 points for publications and aptitude for scientific research;
- 4) up to 10 points for specialization degrees; certificates of attendance in post-graduate degree courses;
- 5) up to 10 points for other qualifications associated with services rendered as a result of contracts, bursaries or positions in domestic, foreign or international research bodies, duly certified, provided the start date and duration of the activity carried out is indicated;

b) 40 points for the interview.

The outcome of the qualification assessment procedure must be made known to the interested persons before the interview, by posting them on the notice board of the relevant department.

The opinion rendered by the Selection Committee is unchallengeable.

Art. 8

Establishment of the employment relationship

The winning applicant, possessing the prescribed requirements, shall enter into an autonomous work contract in accordance with private law with the Rector to last for 12 months usually starting on the first day of the first month of the fellowship.

Without prejudice to the complete fulfilment of their obligations, research fellows may undertake university teaching assignments, official or integrative, granted by means of contract, pursuant to the University Regulations governing Professors under contract at the University of Bergamo for a maximum of 6 UFC (University Formative Credits) subject to authorization of the pertinent Department's Board.

Without prejudice to full performance of their duties, research fellows may ask, as an exception, to perform external assignments, subject to authorization of the Department's Board, provided that the assignment:

SERVIZI AMMINISTRATIVI GENERALI

SELEZIONI E GESTIONE GIURIDICA

1. is occasional and short-lasting;
2. does not lead to a conflict of interest with the specific research activity carried out by the research fellow;
3. does not cause any damage to the image or the interests of the University.

Research fellows who wish to carry out, or continue to perform, a work activity consisting of services provided free of charge to volunteering associations or co-ops of a socio-assistance nature and not for profit, may do so provided that they fully perform their research duties.

The fellowships do not entitle their holders to access positions in Universities, in public research and experimentation bodies and institutions, in the Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Economic Development (ENEA) and in the Italian Space Agency (ASI), as well as in institutions whose scientific specialization degree has been recognized to be equivalent to the PhD title pursuant to article 74, paragraph four, of Italian Decree of the President of the Republic no. 382 dated 11th July 1980.

Provided it is consistent with the research activities assigned to them and subject to authorization of the Department's Board, research fellows may take part in the performance of research and consulting activities on behalf of third parties commissioned by the University in accordance with art. 66 of Italian D.P.R. 382/80 and to the distribution of the relevant proceeds according to the methods established by the regulatory provisions in force.

Pursuant to Italian Ministerial Decree of 12th July, 2007, the collaboration is mandatorily suspended in case of pregnancy and puerperium according to the terms specified in articles 16, 17 and 20 of Italian Legislative Decree 151/2001. The employment relationship is consequently extended for 180 days, due to the effects of the statutory leave referred to above.

The research activity and the fellowship may be suspended for sick leaves lasting longer than 30 days over the course of one year, without prejudice to the fact that the duration of the fellowship cannot be reduced due to the aforementioned suspension. A period of justified absence of less than 30 days in one year does not represent a suspension and, consequently, does not have to be made up.

As from 2011, the following shall apply to the research fellowships: for taxation purposes, the provisions referred to in art. 4 of Italian Law no. 476 of 13th August 1984, as well as for social security purposes, the provisions referred to in art. 2, paragraphs 26 and following of Italian Law no. 335 of 8th August 1995, as subsequently amended and supplemented, on the subject of mandatory maternity leave, the provisions referred to in the Decree issued by the Italian Ministry of Labour and Social Security of 12th July 2007, published in no. 247 of 23rd October 2007 of the Italian Official Gazette, and, on the subject of sick leave, art. 1, paragraph 788, of Italian Law no. 296 of 27th December 2006 and subsequently amended. During the mandatory maternity leave, the indemnity paid by INPS (National Institute of Social Insurance) pursuant to article 5 of the aforementioned Decree of 12th July 2007 will be supplemented by the University up to the full amount of the fellowship.

The University shall arrange for accident and third-party liability insurance coverage in favour of the research fellows within the scope of performing their research.

At the end of the contract, the research fellow shall submit a report on all the activities carried out to the Department's Board.

In case of failure in delivering such report, the last instalment of the fellowship will not be paid.

Art. 9

Processing of personal data

The personal information collected will be processed according to the provisions of art. 18 of Italian Legislative Decree no. 196 of 30th June 2003, as subsequently amended and supplemented, in compliance with the criteria of fairness and transparency, and exclusively for the
