

Research program “Socio economic benefit of technological supports promoting physical and psychological wellness for aging population”
--

Annex C

HTH Centre

Tutor: Prof. Paolo Malighetti

Research program

The Smart Aging project aim is to create a service platform for personal data acquisition and processing, dedicated to active ageing, wellness and healthcare for elderly people. The research activity will focus on the analysis of socio economic benefits of the solutions provided within the smart aging project promoting physical and psychological wellness for aging population.