

Call for applications for students of the University of Bergamo regularly enrolled in the academic year 2018/2019, in the first year of the master's degree course Planning and Management of Tourism Systems.

ART. 1 – PURPOSES AND BENEFICIARIES

The project "E-CUL-TOURS: Managing Cultural Heritage in Tourism", involves several master's degree courses in Europe related to the theme of Tourism Management and the management of cultural heritage and promotes the creation of training and mobility courses for students of the University of Bergamo (Italy), Universidade de Aveiro (Portugal), Höskolan Dalarna (Sweden) and Hochschule Stralsund - University of Applied Sciences (Germany).

The present call provides the possibility for mobility scholarships to be used at the partner universities of Aveiro (Portugal), Dalarna (Sweden) and Stralsund (Germany) to which other educational activities are linked such as seminars, excursions, participation in conferences and workshops.

During the mobility period and at the end of it, students will also be required to carry out project-works consistent with the programs related to each mobility period.

The mobility of students, coordinated by Prof. Rossana Bonadei and supported by the project team (prof. Federica Burini, prof. Elena Bougleux, prof. Roberta Garibaldi and Dr. Sanja Iguman), will last 5 consecutive days and take place in each the following locations, for a total mobility period of 15 days :

- Universidade de Aveiro (Portugal),
- Höskolan Dalarna (Sweden),
- Hochschule Stralsund - University of Applied Sciences (Germany).

Activities during the Blended mobility period:

- Participation in the institutional/academic events
- Field trips (visits to museums, mines, rural areas, cellars, etc.)
- Meetings with experts
- Lectures

Activities during the ISP mobility period:

- Participation in the institutional/academic events
- Field trips
- Meetings with experts
- Lectures
- Group work regarding the preparation for the case study reports

Outputs after the mobility period:

- 5000 words written report on case study conducted during the mobility period. To be completed by mid-January 2020

The University of Bergamo will select a maximum of 5 students and provide each student with a mobility grant for a sum of € 2175,00 euro to cover mobility expenses (return trip to the host location, local transport, accommodation and subsistence) at foreign host Universities and Educational Institutes, project partners, to be devoted to selected students. The mobility grant will be disbursed in two tranches, the first equal to 80% of the total amount (1.741,00 euros) following the acceptance of the scholarship, the second 20% (434 euros) upon the end of the mobility period carried out abroad, prior to the confirmation of the performance of the activities carried out.
