7. have never been enrolled before in a degree programs at any of the Partner Universities listed in art. 1.

ART. 4 – Selection criteria and application documents

Art. 4.1 Selection criteria and evaluation committee

Candidates are selected on the basis of merit requirements.

For the University of Bergamo, the evaluation will be carried out by a Committee of Experts composed by professors Paola Scevi and Alberto Brugnoli (Teaching staff in charge of the project), a member of the International Desk, the Professor in charge of the Master Programmes concerned – or her/his delegates – and any other teaching staff the Professors will consider appropriate.

Art. 4.2 Application documents

By May 15th, 2022, candidates are required to submit the following documentation:

MANDATORY DOCUMENTS:

1. The application form.
2. Ration Card Number of their Proof of Registration or a copy of their currently valid Refugee Identity card issued in collaboration with UNHCR.
3. An official certificate of the first level degree, issued by the awarding university, confirming the qualification required for admission to the chosen degree programme.

4. An official transcript of exams passed and relative marks.
5. Any relevant and additional document required by the specific programmes chosen (see Art. 9).

NOT MANDATORY DOCUMENTS:

Letter/s of references written by supervisor/advisor supporting the application.

All documents presented by applicants must be in English or Italian.

All documents in any language other than Italian or English must be accompanied by a translation. During the application phase, the translation can be done directly by the candidate.

Art. 4.3 Deadlines and modalities

Applications, along with the documents listed in article 4.2, must be submitted from the day after the publication of this call to May 31st, 2022 at 12:00 pm (Italian Official Time), exclusively via email to the following email address: international.students@unibg.it

The email must bear as object: UNICORE 4.0 and the name and surname of the candidate.

Applications that are not properly filled in or complete with all the required documentation will not be accepted. Applications cannot be submitted on paper, by fax or to an email box different from the above mentioned one.

Candidates are allowed to apply for maximum two programmes.

We strongly suggest candidates to apply for no more of two different Universities and to concentrate their choice on the programmes in which they meet the specific entry requirements.

Art. 5 - Selection process

The application process is divided into two steps:

- Step 1: preliminary evaluation of the documentation
- Step 2: interview

Art. 5.1 Step 1 - Evaluation of the documentation

The Committee of Experts will evaluate the documentation according to the following criteria:

- academic background and Grade Point Average (score: 0-15);
- evaluation of CV: professional experience and personal skills (score: 0-15);
- coherence between previous studies and selected Second Cycle Degree programme (score: 0-10).

Candidates receiving a score of less than 25 will not be admitted to phase 2 of the selection process. Only the first 10 candidates of the ranking will be admitted to the Step 2 (interview).

Candidates admitted to Step 2 will be notified by email by May 15th, 2022.

Art. 5.2 Step 2 - Interview

The 10 candidates admitted to step 2 will be interviewed by the Committee of Expert, who will evaluate their technical skills, competence on the subject as well as their mastering of the English language.

Interviews will be graded on a scale of 40 points.

Interviews will take place starting from 24th May 2022 and will be held on-line.

Candidates will be notified by email about the date and time of the interview.

Candidates are requested to come to the interview with the Refugee Identity Card used during the on-line application. A third party must be present during the beginning of the interview for the identification of the candidate.

Art. 5.3 - Establishment and approval of the final ranking list

Candidates who will score less than 50/80 points will not be included in the final ranking.

Candidate rankings are drawn up by the Committee of Experts summing up the results of the two phases and are approved by decree. The rankings are organised in decreasing order of points. The two available seats are awarded on a gender balance ratio and the committee will elaborate two different rankings according to the gender of the candidates. Only in the case that the list of eligible candidates does not include representatives of the two genders, the seats can be awarded to two representatives of the same gender. For equal points, preference will be given to the younger candidate. Winners will be notified by email by 25th June 2022.

Art. 5.4 Acceptance

The winner candidates must reply to the University communication accepting the scholarship by 10 days from the reception. Failing to provide a feedback by the given deadline will cause the loss of the benefits.

By accepting the scholarship, candidates fully accept without reserve UNICORE 4.0 project support and financial benefits at the conditions established in this call for applications. With the acceptance candidates also confirm under their own full responsibility that they do not fall within any of the conditions of incompatibility established in article 2 of this call for applications.

Candidates will receive from the International desk of the University of Bergamo detailed information about the procedure to follow in order to complete the enrolment.

Candidates selected for the UNICORE 4.0 project support and financial benefits are not automatically enrolled in the chosen Second cycle degree Programme. Candidates must comply with the applicable provisions and deadlines, including enrolment regulations, established by the Memorandum issued by the Italian Ministry of University and Research, concerning foreign students' access to university degree programmes.

More specifically, to complete the enrolment process, candidates selected as winners will have to submit to the International desk the following documents:

- the original bachelor's degree certificate, or its certified copy, legalized by the competent Italian embassy/consulate, along with its translation in Italian and dichiarazione di valore in loco;
- the original transcript of records, legalized by the competent Italian embassy/consulate, along with its translation in Italian.

Art. 5.5 Ranking scroll and assignment of available seats

Candidates selected as winners can withdraw by sending an e-mail to international.students@unibg.it. In case a candidate winner of the scholarship will officially withdraw by July 15, 2022, the scholarship will be allocated to the next eligible candidate in the gender-based ranking.

If after having scrolled all the rankings, seats will still be available, the University of Bergamo reserves the right of searching for eligible candidates from other rankings issued by the Universities partners of the project, listed in article 1.1. Potential candidates must undergo any additional selection process that University of Bergamo will consider appropriate in order to verify the specific entry requirements.

ART. 6 – Access to the scholarship and renewal requirements

Art. 6.1 Access to the scholarship

Winners will receive detailed information on how to access to the benefits by e-mail.

Art. 6.2 Renewal requirements

- First year: by August 10, 2023: 30 CFU/credits.
- Second year: by August 10, 2024: 60 CFU/credits.

Art. 6.3 Additional Renewals
