ART. 1 - PURPOSES AND BENEFICIARIES

The project "WAT-HER-MINES: Interpreting European Industrial Heritage" involves various master's degree courses in Europe dedicated to the topic of Heritage - declined towards the valorisation of former industrial structures, and to their management as cultural heritage; the project promotes the training and the creation of joint courses dedicated to the students of the participating partners: University of Bergamo (Italy), Höskolan Dalarna (Sweden), Haute Ecole Provinciale de Hainaut - Condorcet (Belgium), Center for Urban Studies - Belgrade, Serbia).

The present call provides scholarships for Students' Mobility towards two partner institutions, where training activities such as seminars, educational excursions, participation in conferences and workshops will take place within the framework of the WAT-HER-MINES project.

During and at the end of the period abroad, students will be required to carry out project-works consistent with the programs relating to individual mobility.

The mobility of students, coordinated by Prof. Elena Bougleux and supported by the project team (prof. Federica Burini, prof. Rossana Bonadei) will last 5 consecutive days (working days, excluding travel) and take place in each the following locations:

- Höskolan Dalarna / Dalarna University (Svezia), October 2023
- Università di Bergamo, March 2024.

Activities during the ISP:

- Participation in the institutional/academic events
- Field trips (visits to museums, mines, rural areas, cellars, etc.)
- Meetings with experts
- Lectures
- Group work regarding the preparation for the case study reports

Activities after the mobility:

Students are required to produce reports on activities and didactic experiences carried out, related to the case studies dealt with during the mobility. The completion of the activities related to both mobility corresponds to the performance of the curricular workshop of the second year (6 CFU) and the free choice exam of the second year (6 CFU).

The University of Bergamo will select a maximum of 5 students, and provide each of them with a mobility grant, for a lump sum of € 1.200 aimed at covering mobility costs (round trip travel from the host sites, local transport, meals, accommodation).

The selected students who will carry out the mobility at the Högskolan Dalarna / Dalarna University (Svezia) and at the MA in PMTS, University of Bergamo.
