For obtaining the ISEEU PARIFICATO it is necessary to present the following documentation issued by the competent authorities of the Country in which the income is produced and translated into Italian by the Italian diplomatic authorities having jurisdiction on the territory, CAF office will accept only original documents issued in year 2023:

- Identity card (if EU countries) or passport;
- Student number (matricula), only for students already enrolled at University of Bergamo;
- Fiscal code (students who haven’t received it yet, will provide it to CAF later, as soon as they will be assigned one).

- Incomes and properties in Italy:
  - for bank accounts and deposits: balance at 31st December 2022 and the average balance of 2022 (or the bank statement with all year’s transactions to permit us to calculate average balance);
  - CU relevant to any scholarships received in 2022 (received by e-mail in March 2023 from stipendi.redditi@unibg.it).

- Certification of composition of the foreign family unit: WARNING: household means all the people living in the same house with the student (e.g.: parents + siblings + other people living in the same house). In case of separated or divorced parents, the applicant belongs to the household of the parent receiving child maintenance for the student. In the case of parents who are not legally separated or divorced, the household of the applicant will be assessed together with the combined households of both parents.

- House rental: If the family rents a house, the student should provide a copy of the current rental agreement indicating how much is paid monthly.
• Incomes for the solar year 2022 of each member of the family: the document must clearly state that the income refers to the solar year 2022.

• Family properties:
  - purchase price or market value for properties owned by the family (building and land) at 31st December 2022;
  - in case of a mortgage on the house (or other property), the student should provide a copy of the mortgage statement indicating the remaining amount at 31st December 2022 to be paid to the financial institution that provided the loan.

• Assets owned by the members of the family on 31st December 2022 (bank accounts, securities, dividends, shareholdings, fractions of the net assets of any companies owned, etc.):
  - for bank accounts and deposits: balance at 31st December 2022 and the average balance of 2022 (or the bank statement with all year’s transactions to permit us to calculate average balance);
  - personal estate of the family owned at 31st December 2022 (assets, dividends, etc.).

In case of absence of property/income/assets for some family member you need a declaration confirming this condition.

In those countries where there are particular difficulties issuing the certification certified by the local Italian Embassy, the same may be issued by the competent foreign diplomatic or consular representation in Italy and legalised by the Prefectures under art. 33 of Presidential Decree no. 445 of 28th December 2000.

INDEPENDENT STUDENTS

The IUP certification will be exclusively referred to the student’s economic situation, without considering the income and the properties of the family, only if:
- he/she has a different residence from the one of the family since at least two years;
- he/she does not live in a house belonging to a member of the family;
- he/she has a personal income since at least two years. The student’s annual income must not be lower than € 9,000.00.

STUDENTS FROM ‘PARTICULARLY POOR AND DEVELOPING COUNTRIES’

For foreign students coming from the following "particularly poor and developing Countries" as per Mur Decree no. 115 of 28th February 2023:

the evaluation of the economic status is carried out on the basis of a certification of the Italian representation in the country of origin certifying that the student does not belong to a family of notoriously high income and high social status. Such certification may also be issued by the student’s foreign University having agreements or conventions with our University or by Italian bodies authorised to provide guarantees for financial coverage as set out in the current provisions on the enrolment of foreign students in Italian universities. In the latter case the certifying body must undertake to return the scholarship on behalf of the student in case of revocation of the same.
The student is in any case obliged to declare the income and assets held, if any, by his family unit based on Legislative Decree 31st March 1999, no. 109, as amended by Legislative Decree 3rd May 2000, no. 130.
