Clinical Psychology in the Medical Setting

The epistemological, theoretical, and technical bases of clinical psychologist's action

Dr. Chiara Bignamini & Dr. Luca Belotti

Clinical Psychologists and Psychotherapists, working at the "Papa Giovanni XXIII" Hospital, Bergamo

December 24th, 2023 1.00 pm - 5.00 pm
Classroom 2, Palazzo Bernareggi

This meeting will be focused on the clinical psychologist's role in the medical setting, highlighting theories, positionings and goals that guide psychological intervention to support people in acute and chronic physical distress. Dr. Bignamini and dr. Belotti will also present the institutive and organizational framework of the Clinical Psychology Services within the Papa Giovanni XIII Hospital. Finally, the presentation will broaden the discussion on the constraints and possibilities for future psychologists to invest their professional future in this specific context of intervention that interweaves medical/health care with psychological action.

Attendance will be certificated as part of the traineeship activities.
