INTERCULTURAL COMPASS

The international team of Artevelde University of Applied Sciences is looking forward to welcoming you in Ghent from 6 May until 8 May 2026 where we will host our 'Intercultural Compass' event.

During this International Staff Training Week, we will focus on Intercultural Competences for all - from inspiring good practices for students, through professional development initiatives for staff, to approaches for wide institutional implementation.

Are you a staff member within Education or Internationalisation, or a lecturer looking for more inspiration? Then join us for a dynamic three-day programme including lectures, interactive workshops and inspiring sessions. We aim to share our best practices and to learn from your ideas.
